Introduction of New La Marzocco Double Spout

La Marzocco is proud to announce the introduction of a new double pour spout (L119 – La Marzocco Double Spout). This new spout has been designed to allow the Barista to use either two cups or only one cup (see figure below). This new double spout will be included in all new production machines starting in July 2004. La Marzocco will no longer include the L116 – Double spout, or the L116/R-Double Spout, Adjustable with new espresso machines made after July 2004. The L119 and L116/R will be available only through the La Marzocco Technical Center (MarTech) as a spare part. Supplies of L116 will be discontinued.
