

Behind a coffee at Ditta Artigianale is a whole world of people, from farmers to baristas, that work to give you what you deserve - a real cup of specialty coffee. Our coffees are carefully selected by our research team. They have to pass our cupping sessions and quality control, but we need to fall in love with the coffee because that is what we want - to spread the coffee love.

Ditta is a coffee roaster located in Florence, the birthplace of the Italian Renaissance. Ditta is also one of the first coffee roasters that revolutionized the panorama of Italian coffee by giving greater importance to the raw material, establishing direct relationships, and collaborating with coffee growers and implementing together with them a sustainable agriculture. Our primary mission is teaching the consumer the true value of coffee in every single cup we serve and promoting a more discerning consumption.

For us all, coffee is much more than a simple cup of coffee
